Welcome to Redline

R. B. Stimson

It hardly seems like five years since the Mid-South Sale was founded here at Redline. In that time we have seen it fulfill its first goal as a source of supply for good Shorthorns and Polled Shorthorns to breeders and ranchers throughout our rich Mid-South area. Further, it has grown to supply the rest of the continent as well and this indeed is a strong recommendation that carries with it a great responsibility.

It has been a good year at Redline. New stock bulls have been added and the show herd has been eminently successful. The sale cattle and the entire Redline herd will be ready for your inspection early on sale weekend. We are pleased to be joined by our good friends and neighbors from throughout the Mid-South in what we feel is not only our largest but our strongest sale offering to date. We can recommend their cattle as heartily as we do our own.

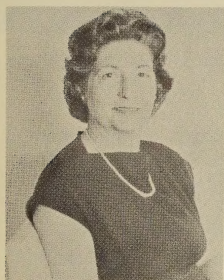

Kathryn and I look forward to welcoming you to our home for buffet dinner at 6:30 p.m. Sunday, March 31.

We look forward to seeing each of you then.

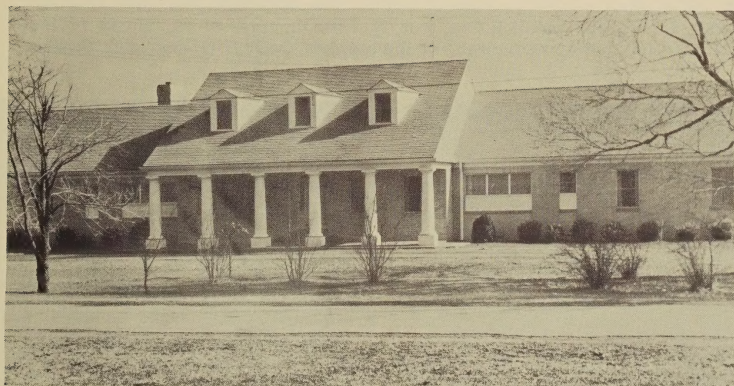

Cordially,

R. B. Stimson

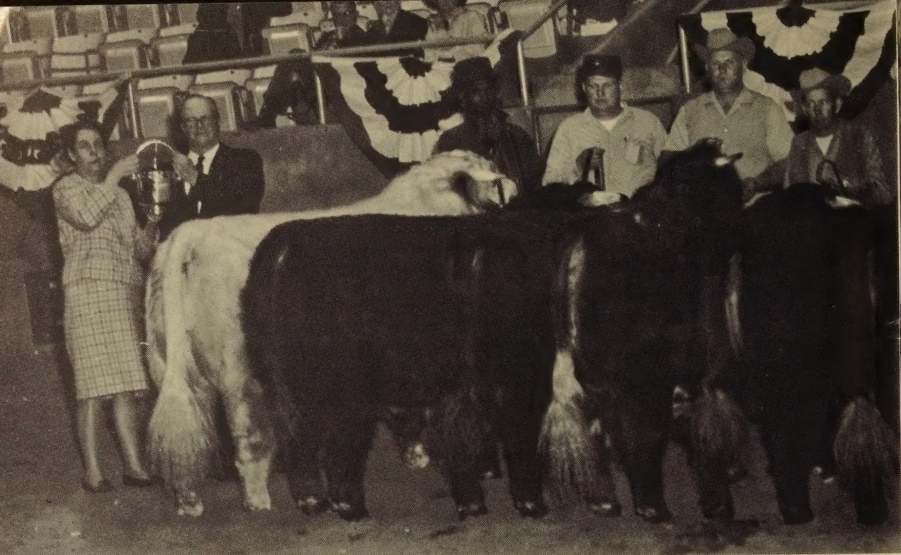

Redline Farms

Mrs. R. B. Stimson

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Stimson welcome you to their home on Redline Farms. Plan to be their guest for buffet dinner on Sunday, March 31, the day before the Mid-South sale.

Best ten head of the big Dixie National Livestock Show, Jackson, Miss., were these from

Together with breeding useful cattle for the improvement of the breed everywhere, must come the project of merchandising them and, in turn, expanding the breed's dominance on every front. An important part of this program at Redline is the show herd which each year claims a greater portion of major trophies and rosettes. Pictured here are just a few of the winners. Most of them sell!

The men of Redline are, from left, R. B. "Bob" Stimson; manager Richard Yarnell and herdsman Russell Sloan. They are three of the most genial and respected cattlemen in the business.

From the Sale Manager —

When the title "Builder of the Breed" was coined, someone must have had Bob Stimson and the energetic folks at Redline in mind. No matter where one travels, the names Stimson and Redline stand for integrity, hard work and vision. When you arrive at Redline, you see their vast, breed-building program in operation. And, practical as it is, Redline could well serve as the model for herds throughout the world.

Redline is no flash in the pan. They've been steadily building and working for many years. It is a team operation with every member of the staff taking a vital part.

Bob Stimson himself is well-known as past president of the American Shorthorn Ass'n, "Builder of the Breed," and trustee of the Shorthorn Foundation.

Bob's wife, Kathryn, is active in national Lassie affairs having been "Lassie of the Year" and national Lassie vice president.

Manager Richard Yarnell is a well-known Shorthorn judge and has traveled throughout the country in the interests of the breed.

Russell Sloan deserves much credit for presenting and roading the successful Redline show herd.

The entire spirit at Redline is one of friendly cooperation toward the eventual goal of producing the world's best Shorthorns and Polled Shorthorns. Even more important, however, is that this goal is being reached within a practical framework on one of the breed's largest farms.

Redline bulls now dominate the Shorthorn commercial trade in the Mid-South. They enjoy a lively demand for their size and substance. Here is a sale which is serving its own locality well. Moreover, each year breeders from throughout the country are finding it wise to invest in Redline bulls and females.

That Redline is selling its entire show herd and all of its All-American females indicates the quality of the female offering. Further, this is a vintage year for bulls. Breeders of registered Shorthorns everywhere would do well to consider bulls like the twice All-American RLF Moy Legend 41st and the popular RLF Determination.

Again this year Redline is joined by its friends and neighbors from throughout the Mid-South in presenting what is easily their best and largest offering to date. Plan now to be with them on April 1.

In the 1967 sale a daughter sold at $1,250 to Melbourne Farm, Big Rock, Ill. She had been reserve champion of the Dixie National and an All-American. Another daughter sold at $1,800 to Melbourne in 1966 and another sold to Lone Star Ranch at $1,150.
